PASSPORT ADVERTISING, INC. EARNS INTERNATIONAL CREATIVE AWARD FOR CLIENT HANWHA

LOS ANGELES (May 1, 2007) – Passport Advertising, Inc. is a silver winner in the 2007 Summit Creative Awards® competition. The agency was awarded in the business to business, product/services brochure category for the product HanStone™ Quartz Surface.

“This recognition is very exciting,” stated Sandra Lee, founder and president of Passport Advertising, Inc. “The competition evaluates entries against a high set of standards. We are gratified that our work for our client Hanwha stood out from the impressive field of entries.”

Established in 1952, Hanwha is a $30 billion dollar conglomerate headquartered in Seoul, Korea. Hanwha has 40 subsidiaries worldwide with 5 of them in the U.S. HanStone Quartz Surface blends the beauty and elegance of natural quartz with strength, functionality, and durability ideal for home and commercial applications from kitchen and bath to restaurants and retail.

An elite panel of international judges from top creative agencies evaluated entries in 13 categories via blind judging. Competition categories included print, broadcast, emerging media, online advertising, marketing materials, direct mail, political, corporate video, public service, best idea never produced, industry self-promotion and student competition.

The 2007 competition included companies from over twenty three countries: Australia, Austria, Belarus, Bulgaria, Canada, China, Croatia, Denmark, Kuwait, Malaysia, Mexico, New Zealand, Northern Ireland, Papua New Guinea, Russia, Singapore, South Africa, Thailand, Ukraine, United Arab Emirates, United Kingdom and the United States.
